Referred to Committee on Finance

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 51.1-138, 51.1-206, 51.1-207, 51.1-208, and 51.1-217 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 51.1-138. Benefits.

A. Employees who become members under this article and on whose behalf contributions are paid as provided in this article shall be entitled to benefits under the retirement system.

B. By resolution legally adopted and approved by the Board, the employer may elect to provide benefits equivalent to those provided under the State Police Officers' Retirement System, as set out in Chapter 2 (§ 51.1-200 et seq.) of this title except for § 51.1-209, in lieu of the benefits that would otherwise be provided hereunder for any employees who are employed in (i) law-enforcement positions comparably hazardous to that of a state police officer, including any sworn law-enforcement officer who has the duty and obligation to enforce the penal and traffic laws of this Commonwealth as directed by his superior officer, if so certified by his appointing authority, (ii) positions as full-time salaried fire fighters, or (iii) positions as regional jail superintendents and jail officers of regional jail farms, regional jails or jail authorities, as approved by the respective jail board or authority and by the participating political subdivisions of such entities. Sheriffs of political subdivisions which participate in the retirement system shall receive benefits equivalent to those of state police officers, except for the benefits provided under § 51.1-209, regardless of whether the employer has elected to provide equivalent benefits as set out in this subsection.

C. Each employer providing the benefits of subsection B for its employees prior to July 1, 1990, may elect to provide for the early retirement of employees as set forth in this subsection in lieu of the early retirement and death before retirement provisions of the State Police Officers' Retirement System. Such election must be made to the Board in writing prior to July 1, 1990. Any member in service on or after his fifty-fifth birthday with five or more years of creditable service (i) as a member in the retirement system established by this chapter, (ii) as a member in the retirement system established by Chapter 2 (§ 51.1-200 et seq.) of Title 51.1, or (iii) as a member in the retirement system established by Chapter 2.1 (§ 51.1-211 et seq.) of Title 51.1 may retire upon written notification to the Board setting forth at what time the retirement is to become effective. The effective date shall be after his last day of service but shall not be more than ninety days prior to the filing of such notice. The member shall receive an allowance which shall be determined in the same manner as for retirement at an employee's normal retirement with creditable service and average final compensation being determined as of the date of his actual retirement. If the member has less than thirty years of service at retirement, the amount of the retirement allowance shall be reduced on an actuarial equivalent basis for the period by which the actual retirement date precedes the earlier of (a) the member's normal retirement date or (b) the first date on or after the member's fifty-fifth birthday on which the member would have completed a total of thirty years of creditable service.

Members retiring under the provisions of this subsection shall be entitled to receive post-retirement supplements as provided in § 51.1-166. ~~In computing the amount of any supplement, any additional allowances being paid under the provisions of subsection B of § 51.1-206 shall be disregarded.~~ In the case of death before retirement, members whose employers elect to provide benefits in accordance with the provisions of this subsection and who have not attained the age of fifty on the date of death shall be assumed to be fifty years of age for the purposes of reducing the benefits on an actuarial equivalent basis.

D. The retirement system shall not be liable for the payment of any retirement allowances or other benefits on behalf of a member or beneficiary of a member for which reserves have not been previously created from funds contributed by the employer or the members for such benefits.

§ 51.1-206. Service retirement allowance.

A. A member shall receive an annual retirement allowance, payable for life, as follows:

INTRODUCED

SB812

59 1. Normal retirement. - The allowance shall equal ~~1.70~~ 2.50 percent of his average final 60 compensation multiplied by the amount of creditable service.

61 For retirements between October 1, 1994, and December 31, 1998, any state police officer who is a 62 member or beneficiary of a retirement system administered by the Board shall receive an additional 63 retirement allowance equal to three percent of the service or disability retirement allowance payable 64 under this section. Average final compensation attributable to service as Governor, Lieutenant Governor, 65 Attorney General, or member of the General Assembly shall not be included in computing this 66 additional retirement allowance.

67 2. Early retirement. - The allowance shall be determined in the same manner as for normal retirement 68 with creditable service and average final compensation being determined as of the date of actual 69 retirement. If the member has less than twenty-five years of service at retirement, the amount of the 70 retirement allowance shall be reduced on an actuarial equivalent basis for the period by which the actual 71 retirement date precedes the earlier of (i) his normal retirement date or (ii) the first date on or after his 72 fiftieth birthday on which he would have completed a total of twenty-five years of creditable service.

73 3. 50/10 retirement. - The allowance shall be payable in a monthly stream of payments equal to the 74 greater of (i) the amount the member would receive if he had taken early retirement or (ii) the 75 actuarially calculated present value of the member's accumulated contributions, including accrued 76 interest.

77 B. In addition to the allowance payable under subsection A, a member shall receive annually from 78 the date of his retirement until his retirement age, as such term is defined under the Social Security Act
79 (42 U.S.C. § 416 et seq., as now or hereafter amended), an allowance equal to $9,264. Beginning July 1, 80 2001, and biennially thereafter, such allowance shall be reviewed and adjusted by the Board to an 81 amount recommended by the actuary of the Virginia Retirement System based upon increases in social 82 security benefits in the interim.

83 This subsection shall not apply to the following: (i) any member who qualifies for retirement under 84 subsection C of § 51.1-205 and is credited with less than twenty years' service rendered in a hazardous 85 position or (ii) any member employed initially on or after July 1, 1974, who is credited with less than 86 twenty years' service rendered in a hazardous position.

87 C.B. If a beneficiary of a service retirement allowance under this chapter is at any time in service as 88 an employee in a position covered for retirement purposes under the provisions of this or any chapter
89 other than Chapter 7 (§ 51.1-700 et seq.) of this title, his retirement allowance shall cease while so 90 employed.

91 § 51.1-207. Death before retirement.

92 A. If a member dies before retirement, and if no benefits are payable under subsection B, the amount 93 of his accumulated contributions shall be paid to the designated beneficiary or to a surviving relative 94 according to the same order of precedence as set forth in subsection A of § 51.1-162. This amount shall 95 be reduced by the amount of any retirement allowance previously received by the member under this 96 chapter or the abolished system. Each member shall designate who is to receive a refund of accumulated 97 contributions credited to his account in the event of the death of the member prior to retirement. The 98 designation must be made on a form prepared by the Board, signed and acknowledged by the member 99 before a person authorized to take acknowledgments, and filed in a manner prescribed by the Board.
100 The designation may be changed by the member by the written designation of some other person, 101 signed, acknowledged, and filed in a manner prescribed by the Board.

102 If no designation has been made, or the death of the designated person occurs prior to the death of 103 the member and another designation has not been made, the proceeds shall be paid to the persons 104 surviving at the death of the member in the same order of precedence as set forth in subsection A of 105 § 51.1-162.

106 B. If a member dies in service and if no benefits are payable under subsection C, a retirement 107 allowance shall be paid to the person designated as provided in subsection A of this section if the 108 person is the member's (i) surviving spouse, (ii) minor child, or (iii) parent(s). If no designation has 109 been made, or if the death of the designated person occurs prior to the death of the member and another 110 designation has not been made, a retirement allowance shall be paid in the same order of precedence as 111 set forth in subsection B of § 51.1-162. The retirement allowance shall be continued during the lifetime 112 of the person or in the case of a minor child until the child dies or attains the age of majority, 113 whichever occurs first. The retirement allowance shall equal the decreased retirement allowance that 114 would have been payable under the joint and survivor option so that the same amount would be 115 continued to such person after the member's death. If the member dies prior to his fiftieth birthday, then, 116 for purposes of this subsection, the member shall be presumed to be age fifty on his date of death.
117 ~~When determining the allowance that would have been payable to the member had the member retired~~
118 ~~on the date of his death, the provisions of subsection B of § 51.1-206 shall not apply.~~ If the person 119 elects in writing under seal and duly acknowledged, the amount of the member's accumulated 120 contributions shall be paid to the person exclusively, in lieu of any other benefits under this section.

121 This amount shall be reduced by the amount of any retirement allowance previously received by the 122 member.

123 C. If a member dies in service from a cause compensable under the Virginia Workers' Compensation
124 Act (§ 65.2-100 et seq.), a retirement allowance shall be paid to the member's surviving spouse. If no
125 compensation is finally awarded under the Virginia Workers' Compensation Act due to legal proceedings
126 or otherwise resulting in settlement from the persons causing such death, the Virginia Workers'
127 Compensation Commission shall determine whether the member's death was from a cause compensable 128 under the Virginia Workers' Compensation Act. If the member leaves no surviving spouse or the 129 surviving spouse dies, any minor children of the deceased member shall be paid an allowance until the 130 children die or attain the age of majority, whichever occurs first. If more than one minor child survives 131 the deceased member, the allowance shall be divided in a manner determined by the Board. If the 132 deceased member leaves neither surviving spouse nor minor child, the allowance, divided in a manner 133 determined by the Board, shall be paid to the member's parents during their lives.

134 The retirement allowance, payable hereunder to a qualifying survivor, shall be the annual amount 135 which when added to the compensation payable under the Virginia Workers' Compensation Act for the 136 death of the member, shall equal fifty percent of the member's average final compensation if the 137 survivor does not qualify for death benefits under the provisions of the Social Security Act in effect on 138 the date of the death of the member. If the survivor qualifies for death benefits under the provisions of 139 the Social Security Act in effect on the date of the death of the member, the allowance payable from the 140 retirement system when added to the compensation payable under the Virginia Workers' Compensation
141 Act shall equal thirty-three and one-third percent of the member's average final compensation.

142 Any beneficiary entitled to the entire amount of a retirement allowance under the provisions of this 143 subsection as a result of the death of a member shall be entitled to waive his rights to the allowance by 144 written notification to the Board within ninety days after the death of the member in order to make 145 available a retirement allowance under the provisions of subsection B of this section.

146 § 51.1-208. Post-retirement supplements.

147 ~~In computing the amount of any post-retirement supplements, any additional allowances being paid~~
148 ~~under the provisions of subsection B of § 51.1-206 shall be disregarded.~~ Any recipient of an allowance
149 which initially commenced on or prior to January 1, 1990, shall be entitled to post-retirement 150 supplements effective July 1, 1991.

151 § 51.1-217. Service retirement allowance.

152 A. A member shall receive an annual retirement allowance, payable for life, as follows:

153 1. Normal retirement

154 a. Notwithstanding the provisions of §§ 51.1-155, 51.1-155.1 and 51.1-155.2, for any employee 155 commencing employment or reemployment on or after July 1, 2001, and for any employee who makes 156 the election provided in § 51.1-221, the allowance shall equal (i) two percent of his average final 157 compensation multiplied by the amount of creditable service earned (a) as a member in the retirement
158 system established by this chapter, (b) as a member in the retirement system established by Chapter 2
159 (§ 51.1-200 et seq.) of Title 51.1, or (c) while earning the benefits permitted by § 51.1-138; and (ii) 1.70 160 percent of his average final compensation multiplied by all other creditable service, if any; and 161 b. For any other employee, the allowance shall equal 1.70 percent of his average final compensation 162 multiplied by the amount of creditable service.

163 2. Early retirement. - The allowance shall be determined in the same manner as for normal retirement
164 with creditable service and average final compensation being determined as of the date of actual 165 retirement.

166 a. For an individual retiring pursuant to subdivision B 1 of § 51.1-216, who is not retiring directly 167 from service as an employee as defined in § 51.1-212, and who has less than thirty years of service shall 168 retire under the provisions of the retirement system for which he is a member as of his retirement date; 169 and

170 b. For all other individuals retiring pursuant to subdivision B 1 of § 51.1-216, and for an individual 171 retiring pursuant to subdivision B 2 of § 51.1-216 who has less than twenty-five years of service at 172 retirement, the amount of the retirement allowance shall be reduced on an actuarial equivalent basis for 173 the period by which the actual retirement date precedes the earlier of (i) his normal retirement date or 174 (ii) the first date on or after his fiftieth birthday on which he would have completed a total of 175 twenty-five years of creditable service.

176 B. Any person who is an employee on June 30, 2001, and on July 1, 2001, who does not make the 177 election provided in § 51.1-221, shall receive, in addition to the allowance payable under subsection A, 178 from the date of his retirement until his sixty-fifth birthday, an annual allowance equal to $9,264.
179 Beginning July 1, 2001, and biennially thereafter, such allowance shall be reviewed and adjusted by the 180 Board to an amount recommended by the actuary of the Virginia Retirement System based upon 181 increases in Social Security benefits in the interim. This subsection shall not apply to the following: (i)

182 any member who qualifies for retirement under subsection C of § 51.1-216 and is credited with less than 183 twenty years' service rendered in a hazardous position or (ii) any member employed initially on or after 184 July 1, 1974, who is credited with less than twenty years' service rendered in a hazardous position.

185 C. If a beneficiary of a service retirement allowance under this chapter is at any time in service as an 186 employee in a position covered for retirement purposes under the provisions of this or any chapter other 187 than Chapter 7 (§ 51.1-700 et seq.) of this title, his retirement allowance shall cease while so employed.

188 D. No person shall be eligible to receive any of the allowances provided in this section if he receives 189 retirement benefits under Chapter 2 (§ 51.1-200 et seq.) of Title 51.1 or under § 51.1-138. No person 190 shall receive any allowance pursuant to subdivision A 1 (i) if he has received an allowance pursuant to
