 9 6.1-32.25, 6.1-32.26, 6.1-32.27 and 6.1-32.28 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as 10 follows:

11 § 6.1-32.11. Definitions.

12 As used in this article:

13 "Affiliated trust company" means a trust company of which five percent or more of any class of its 14 capital stock is owned, directly or indirectly, that is controlled by a trust company holding company.
 15 For purposes of this article, a trust company holding company or other person has control of a trust
 16 company or other legal entity if the person owns twenty-five percent or more of the voting stock of the 17 trust company or entity; if, pursuant to the definition of control in the Bank Holding Company Act of 18 1956, the person would be presumed to control the trust company or entity; or if the Commission 19 determines that the person exercises a controlling influence over the management and policies of the 20 trust company or entity.

21 "Agent" shall have the same meaning assigned to that term in § 13.1-501 of the Virginia Securities
 22 Act (§ 13.1-501 et seq.).

23 "Broker-dealer" shall have the same meaning assigned to that term in § 13.1-501 of the Virginia
 24 Securities Act.

25 "Commission" means the State Corporation Commission of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

26 "Fiduciary" means executor, administrator, conservator, guardian, committee, or trustee.

27 "Investment advisor" shall have the same meaning assigned to that term in § 13.1-501 of the Virginia
 28 Securities Act.

29 "Investment advisor representative" shall have the same meaning assigned to that term in § 13.1-501
 30 of the Virginia Securities Act.

31 "Investment company" shall have the same meaning assigned to that term in the Investment
 32 Company Act of 1940, 15 U.S.C. 80a-1 et seq.

33 "Operating plan" means a plan of an affiliated trust company which establishes (i) the procedures
 34 such company will have in effect to ensure that no agent, broker-dealer, investment advisor, investment
 35 advisor representative, or investment company exercises improper influence over the investment
 36 activities it undertakes pursuant to its fiduciary responsibilities; (ii) how the fees, commissions or other 37 compensation, by whatever name it may be called, which each trust will pay for the investment of its 38 funds will be fair and reasonable; (iii) how any decision by such company to permit compensation for 39 the investment of the funds it holds in trust on any basis other than a fixed percentage of the dollar 40 amount of funds held in a trust will be made only if such compensation is in the best interest of the 41 beneficiaries; and (iv) any other provision or information required by the Commission submitted by an 42 applicant for a certificate of authority, which plan establishes the policies and procedures a trust
 43 company will have in effect when the institution opens for business and thereafter (i) to avoid or resolve 44 conflicts of interests, (ii) to prevent improper influences from affecting the actions of the trustee, (iii) to 45 ensure that trust accounts are handled in accordance with recognized standards of fiduciary conduct, 46 and (iv) to assure compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

47 "Person" means any individual, firm, corporation, partnership, association, trust, or legal or 48 commercial entity or group of individuals, however organized.

49 "Principal" means any person who, directly or indirectly, owns or controls (i) ten percent or more of 50 the outstanding stock of a stock corporation or (ii) a ten percent or greater interest in a nonstock
 51 corporation or a limited liability company.

52 "Trust business" means the holding out by a person or legal entity to the public at large by 53 advertising, solicitation or other means that the person or legal entity is available to act as a fiduciary in 54 the Commonwealth of Virginia or is accepting and undertaking to perform the duties of a fiduciary in 55 the regular course of its business.

56 "Trust company" means a corporation, including an affiliated trust company, authorized to engage in

57 the trust business under this article with powers expressly restricted to the conduct of general trust 58 business.

59 "Trust company holding company" means a corporation which owns, directly or indirectly, five 60 percent or more of any class of capital stock of a broker-dealer, investment advisor or investment
61 company and ~~which also owns five percent or more of any class of capital stock of~~ controls a trust
62 company. A trust company holding company shall not be deemed a financial institution holding 63 company for any purpose under this title unless it ~~owns more than five percent of the voting shares of~~ 64 ~~controls~~ a financial institution other than an affiliated trust company or ~~of~~ another financial institution 65 holding company.

66 § 6.1-32.14. Application for certificate; fee.

67 A. An application for a certificate shall be in writing, in such form as the Commission prescribes,
68 verified under oath and supported by such information, data and records as the Commission may 69 require. The application shall include an operating plan.

70 B. Each application for a certificate of authority shall be accompanied by an investigation fee of 71 $10,000, made payable to the Treasurer of the Commonwealth.

72 § 6.1-32.14:2. Certain transactions prohibited.

73 An affiliated trust company shall not, during the underwriting period, purchase from an affiliated 74 broker-dealer, for any trust account or for its own account, any security that is being underwritten by 75 that broker-dealer; ~~other than investment grade fixed-income securities~~. An affiliated trust company may 76 not purchase for any trust account or for its own account any security that is issued by a company that 77 owns five percent or more of the capital stock of, or is affiliated with, the affiliated trust company.

78 § 6.1-32.18. Procedure for granting or denying certificate.

79 Before any trust company shall begin business, it shall obtain from the Commission a certificate of 80 authority authorizing it to do so. Prior to the issuance of such a certificate ~~to a trust company or~~ 81 ~~affiliated trust company~~, the Commission shall ascertain that:

82 1. All of the provisions of law have been complied with;

83 2. The trust company is formed for no other reason than a legitimate trust business;

84 3. Financially responsible persons have subscribed for capital stock, surplus and a reserve for 85 operation in an amount deemed by the Commission to be sufficient to warrant successful operation, but 86 the capital stock shall not be less than $500,000. The Commission shall also ascertain that each 87 principal of an applicant has the financial responsibility, character, reputation, and general fitness to 88 warrant belief that the business will be operated efficiently and fairly, in the public interest, and in 89 accordance with law ;

90 4. Oaths of all the directors have been taken and filed in accordance with § 6.1-32.22;

91 5. The moral fitness, financial responsibility and business qualifications of those named as officers
92 and directors of the proposed trust company are such as to command the confidence of the community
93 in which the trust company is proposed to be located. If the applicant is an affiliated trust company, the 94 Commission shall also determine that the trust company holding company of the applicant is qualified
95 by virtue of its business record, experience, and financial responsibility to control a trust company;

96 6. In its opinion, the public interest will be served by the formation of a trust company in the 97 community where it is proposed. The addition of such trust company shall be deemed in the public 98 interest if, based on all relevant evidence and information, advantages such as, but not limited to,
99 increased competition, additional convenience, or gains in efficiency outweigh possible adverse effects
100 such as, but not limited to, diminished or unfair competition, undue concentration of resources, conflicts
101 of interests, or unsafe or unsound practices;

102 7. ~~The operating plan of an affiliated trust company and any other relevant evidence and information~~
103 ~~demonstrate that the conduct of the affiliated trust company's investment activities and the compensation~~
104 ~~paid for such investment activities will be consistent with the affiliated trust company's fiduciary~~ 105 ~~responsibilities and will be in accordance with applicable law and regulations warrant belief that the~~ 106 ~~trust company will conduct its business in accordance with generally accepted fiduciary standards; and~~ 107 8. Any other facts deemed pertinent are present.

108 § 6.1-32.19. Acquisition of control; application.

109 A. Except as provided in this section, no person shall acquire directly or indirectly ten percent or 110 more of the voting shares of a trust company unless such person first:

111 1. Files an application with the Commission in such form as the Commission may prescribe from 112 time to time;

113 2. Delivers such other information to the Commission as the Commission may require concerning the 114 financial responsibility, background, experience, and activities of the applicant, its directors and, senior 115 officers and principals and of any proposed new directors ~~or~~, senior officers and principals of the trust 116 company; and

117 3. Pays such application fee as the Commission may prescribe.

118 B. Upon the filing and investigation of an application, the Commission shall permit the acquisition, 119 subject to § 6.1-32.20, if it finds that the applicant and its members if applicable, its directors and,
 120 senior officers and principals and any proposed new directors and , senior officers and principals have 121 the financial responsibility, character, reputation, experience and general fitness to warrant belief that the 122 business will be operated efficiently and fairly, in the public interest, and in accordance with law. The 123 Commission shall grant or deny the application within sixty days from the date a completed application
 124 accompanied by the required fee is filed unless the period is extended by order of the Commission
 125 reciting the reasons for the extension. If the application is denied, the Commission shall notify the 126 applicant of the denial and the reasons for the denial.

127 C. The foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply to a person owning ~~ten~~ fifty-one percent 128 or more of the capital stock of the trust company at the time of the proposed acquisition; however, such 129 person shall give the Commission thirty days advance written notice of the proposed acquisition and 130 provide such additional information as the Commission may require.

131 § 6.1-32.20. Restrictions on control, officers and directors.

132 A. None of the following individuals or entities shall be or become a control person of any trust 133 company:

- 134 1. An agent;
- 135 2. A broker-dealer;
- 136 3. An investment advisor;
- 137 4. An investment advisor representative;
- 138 5. An investment company; or
- 139 6. Any corporation, limited liability company, partnership, business trust, association, or similar 140 organization.

141 B. For the purposes of this provision, a "control person" means any individual or entity ~~(i)~~ owning,
 142 directly or indirectly, five percent or more of any class of voting capital stock of a trust company ~~or (ii)~~
 143 ~~serving as an officer or director of a trust company.~~

144 C. Nothing in this section shall prohibit (i) a trust company holding company from owning, directly 145 or indirectly, ~~five~~ twenty-five percent or more of any class of capital stock of a trust company or (ii) any 146 officer, director or employee of a trust company holding company or a subsidiary of a trust company
 147 holding company ~~from serving as an officer or director of an affiliated trust company or from owning,~~
 148 ~~directly or indirectly, five percent or more of any class of capital stock of an affiliated trust company.~~

149 § 6.1-32.23. Reports.

150 Each trust company and each trust company holding company shall file statements of condition and 151 other reports with the Commission in accordance with § ~~6.1-93~~ and subject to § ~~6.1-114~~ requirements
 152 established by regulation.

153 § 6.1-32.24. Investigations; examinations.

154 The Commission may, by its designated officers and employees, as often as it deems necessary, 155 investigate and examine the affairs, business, premises and records of any trust company and of any
 156 trust company holding company. Examinations of such trust companies shall be conducted at least twice
 157 in each three-year period. In the course of such investigations and examination, the principals, officers, 158 directors, and employees of such trust company or trust company holding company being investigated or 159 examined shall, upon demand of the person making such investigation or examination, afford full access 160 to all premises, books, records and information which the person making such investigation or 161 examination deems necessary. For the foregoing purposes, the person making such investigation or 162 examination shall have authority to administer oaths, examine under oath all the aforementioned persons, 163 and compel the production of papers and objects of all kinds.

164 § 6.1-32.25. Fees.

165 In order to defray the costs of their examination, supervision and regulation, every trust company
 166 shall pay a fee in the same amount as that prescribed for the supervision and regulation of trust
 167 departments by § 6.1-94. Each trust company and each trust company holding company shall also pay 168 such additional or special costs as the Commission may incur in connection with its examination.

169 For investigating an application for authority to establish a branch office pursuant to § 6.1-32.21, the 170 Commission shall charge a fee of $1,800.

171 For investigating an application to change the location of a principal office or branch office, the 172 Commission shall charge a fee of $1,000.

173 For investigating an application made pursuant to § 6.1-32.19, the Commission shall charge a fee of 174 $7,000.

175 § 6.1-32.26. Regulations.

176 The Commission may promulgate such regulations as it deems appropriate to effect the purposes of 177 this article. Before promulgating any such regulation, the Commission shall give reasonable notice of its 178 content and shall afford interested parties an opportunity to be heard. In promulgating regulations

179 applicable to affiliated trust companies, the Commission shall be guided, where appropriate, by those 180 standards and requirements concerning self-dealing and conflicts of interests that apply to banks, bank
181 holding companies, and their subsidiaries when engaged in both trust and securities activities.

182 § 6.1-32.27. Audits.

183 The Commission may require a trust ~~company~~ companies or trust company holding companies to 184 have ~~an audit~~ audits made of ~~its~~ their books, records and methods of operation; annually, or whenever 185 it appears to the Commission that the ~~trust company's system~~ of internal controls ~~is of a trust company~~
186 or trust company holding company are not adequate, that it is engaging in unsound practices, or that its 187 financial condition makes such audit necessary.

188 § 6.1-32.28. Commission's remedial powers.

189 A. If the Commission finds that a trust company (i) has failed to fully observe the laws of this 190 Commonwealth, (ii) is being operated in an unsafe or unsound manner, (iii) has failed to comply with 191 any Commission order or regulation, (iv) is engaging in any irregular practices, or (v) is, or is about to 192 become, insolvent or its capital has been, or is in danger of being, impaired, ~~or (vi) if the trust company~~
193 is an affiliated trust company, has failed to comply with its operating plan the Commission shall give 194 notice thereof to the officers and directors of the company. If necessary to conserve the assets of the 195 company or protect the public interest, the Commission may:

196 1. Close the company for a period not exceeding sixty days, which period may be further extended
197 for a like period or periods as the Commission deems necessary;

198 2. Require that all orders and regulations of the Commission be complied with;

199 3. Require that the company make reports daily or at such other times as may be required as to the 200 results achieved in carrying out the Commission's orders;

201 4. Require that any irregularities be promptly corrected;

202 5. Require that any impairment of capital be made good; or

203 6. Temporarily suspend the right of the company to receive any further property in a fiduciary 204 capacity.

205 B. If the Commission determines that a receiver should be appointed for a trust company, the 206 Commission may close the company; take charge of the books, assets and affairs of the company; and 207 apply to any circuit court in the Commonwealth for the appointment of a receiver to take charge of the 208 company's business, assets and affairs. Proceedings for appointment of a receiver for a trust company
209 shall not be entertained by any court except on application of the Commission.

210 C. 1. The Commissioner of Financial Institutions may issue and serve upon a trust company a cease
211 and desist order if, in the opinion of the Commissioner, the company is engaging, has engaged, or, there
212 is reasonable cause to believe, is about to engage in an unsafe or unsound practice, irregularity, or any 213 violation of law, rule or regulation applicable to the conduct of its business, or any Commission order;
214 ~~or, if the company is an affiliated trust company, its operating plan.~~ The cease and desist order shall 215 contain a statement of the facts upon which it is based and may require, in terms that may be mandatory
216 or otherwise, the company and its directors, officers, employees and agents to cease and desist from the 217 practice or violation. The order shall specify its effective date and shall notify the company of its right
218 to request a hearing in accordance with the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

219 2. When the practice or violation specified in the order, or any continuation thereof, is likely to 220 prejudice the company's stockholders, or persons having an interest in property held by the company in 221 a fiduciary capacity, the Commissioner may make the order effective immediately. An order shall 222 remain in effect until withdrawn by the Commissioner or terminated by the Commission after a hearing.
223 A request for a hearing shall be given expeditious treatment on the Commission's docket, and the 224 Commission need not allow ten days' notice to the company.

225 2. That § 6.1-32.14:1 of the Code of Virginia is repealed.

226 3. That an emergency exists and the provisions of this act shall become effective on April 1, 1995.
